

Around SouthField

SouthField Links & The Academy Club

COURSE	An 18-hole, public links-style course for golfers of all abilities
"LINKS-STYLE"	A fun, unique and enticing design that leverages the random yet distinctive landforms within its natural surroundings to create the best possible course. Each tee and green shot is one of a kind with its own look and feel, well designed to be respectful of the environment.
CONSTRUCTION BEGINS	Spring 2009
COURSE OPENS	Summer 2010
PROJECT TEAM	Team G, led by David Gianferante, PGA, and Gregg Lisciotti (Managing Partners)
COURSE ARCHITECT	Brian Silva, designer of Black Rock (Hingham), Waverly Oaks (Plymouth), Cape Cod National (Brewster), Red Tail (Devens)
DEVELOPER	Lisciotti Development Corp. (www.lisciotti.com)
THE ACADEMY CLUB	Approximately 30,000 SF clubhouse with pro shop, restaurant, and conference facilities for catered events and weddings Seasonal tournaments Professional staff and state-of-the-art equipment, including simulators to support training, seminars and schools
BUTCH HARMON	Exclusive Engagement: 2-week instruction program with Butch Harmon, world's foremost golf instructor
HIGHLIGHT	Future home of the NEPGA (New England section of the Professional Golfers' Association) and Hall of Fame
RESIDENCES	The spectacular Golf Village adjacent to the course will feature 275 classically stylish single family homes and townhomes amidst its pristine natural setting for privacy and a mix of grand views.
ENVIRONMENT	The course has been designed to be compatible with the site's natural environment as well as to enhance the golfing experience. Wetlands and wooded areas within the course will be preserved as natural habitats for protected wildlife.

SOUTHFIELD
LINKS